

“Combat stigma by arming yourself with facts. Being undetectable means, I can't pass on HIV.”

See Mark's Story at comePrepd.info

People who take HIV medication & have an undetectable viral load for at least 6 months, can't pass on HIV to their sexual partners.

PrEP is a prevention strategy where HIV negative people take medication to prevent HIV infection.

